

91.25: Emil Mark/Lloyd Strange Fishing Hole

This county park has restrooms and picnic tables, with a nice view overlooking the river. The site is also popular with local fishing enthusiasts.

91.25: DSL Island

This is a classic large peninsula/island, covered with cottonwood and willow, that makes a good rest stop or an alternative campsite, although there is some traffic noise. (no amenities)

91: Halls Ferry Landing

A small public access area at the site of the former Halls Ferry, established in the 1880s.
